North of Roanoke, the Hollins area mixes quiet subdivisions, townhomes and apartments with the historic campus of Hollins University and easy access to Interstate 81. It is a practical place to live for commuters and families alike, and it is part of the service area for The Happy Housekeepers. If you are looking for house cleaning in Hollins, VA, this long-running local company has been cleaning Roanoke Valley homes since 1979.

The mix of housing in Hollins means one size never fits all. A three-bedroom house off Plantation Road has different needs than a two-bedroom apartment near Williamson Road. The company handles both, and its experience with apartment manager services means crews are comfortable working in multi-unit buildings, townhomes and condos as well as single-family homes.

Every visit follows a thorough standard list. Furniture is dusted or polished, carpets are vacuumed and hard surface floors are mopped. Kitchens receive a complete clean-up, bathrooms receive a total clean-up, and window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted. Waste baskets are emptied and cobwebs removed, so the whole home feels tended to, not just the rooms people see first.

For households with heavier needs, specialized tasks can be added. Cleaning oven and refrigerator interiors, washing walls and woodwork, cleaning light fixtures and tackling basements are all on the menu. Spring and fall cleanings are popular with Hollins homeowners who want a top-to-bottom refresh as the seasons change.

Commuters who leave early for jobs along the I-81 corridor appreciate that they do not need to be home during the visit. Employees are bonded and insured by The Happy Housekeepers, and the company itself is licensed, bonded and insured with a BBB blue seal. After the first visit, the office calls to confirm everything met your expectations.

Flexible scheduling helps too. You can choose one-time, weekly, bi-weekly or monthly house cleaning, and the plan can be adjusted as your routine changes. Renters moving in or out of a Hollins apartment can also book move-in and move-out cleanings, which are part of the company's regular services.

Hollins is also home to plenty of university staff, retirees and young professionals who simply do not have the time or energy to deep clean after a long week. Handing the work to a crew with more than four decades of local experience frees up Saturdays for the things that make living here worthwhile, like a morning at Carvins Cove, a hike up Tinker Cliffs or a slow breakfast with the family.
