Holiday Weekend Crashes in Midland and What to Do Next Fourth of July weekend in Midland means backyard cookouts, relatives in from out of town and a lot more cars on Interstate 20 and Loop 250. Thanksgiving brings the same rush in reverse, with families heading out toward Odessa, Big Spring and Andrews, and New Year's Eve adds late nights and parties across town. Holidays are supposed to be the good part of the year. When a crash interrupts one, it helps to know exactly what to do next. Holiday traffic mixes two things that don't go well together: more drivers and more drinking. Texas DPS figures on the firm's Midland page show 929 DUI and DWI arrests in Midland in 2016, and that's in a city where flat, straight roads already tempt people to drive too fast. Add travelers who don't know the area, unlit Midland vehicle accident lawyer rural highways after dark and oilfield crews that may still be running shifts over the holiday, and the risk climbs. A wreck on Loop 250 north after a party, or on Business 20 near downtown on the way home from dinner, can change a family's year in seconds. Right after a crash, get safe, call 911 and get medical care. Midland Memorial Hospital provides the area's main trauma care, and even if you feel okay, some injuries show up hours or days later. Take photos of the vehicles, the road and any injuries. Get the other driver's name, insurance and plate. Write down witness names before everyone scatters to holiday plans. Later, you can buy the Texas Peace Officer's Crash Report, form CR-3, through TxDOT's Crash Records Information System. Be careful with the other driver's insurance company. Adjusters sometimes call quickly, and anything you say can be used to argue you share the blame under Texas proportionate responsibility rules.

Drunk driving crashes can open up more than one source of recovery. Texas has a dram shop law, which means a bar or alcohol seller can be held liable if it served someone who was obviously intoxicated and that person then caused an injury. A Midland car accident lawyer may look at where the at-fault driver was drinking and whether a claim against that business makes sense. The Doan Law Firm investigates beyond the police report, gathers evidence of fault and calculates losses such as medical bills, future care, lost wages, pain and suffering and mental anguish. For families facing the worst outcome, the firm also handles wrongful death claims, which Texas generally allows two years to file. Holidays don't slow the firm down. The West Illinois Avenue office answers the phone 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including July 4th, Thanksgiving and New Year's Day. Call (432) 653-0000 for a free consultation. You pay nothing unless The Doan Law Firm wins your case.

The Doan Law Firm Accident & Injury Attorneys - Midland Address: 4500 W Illinois Ave #203, Midland, TX 79703 Phone: (432) 653-0000 FAQ About Midland Car Accident Lawyer Is it worth hiring an attorney for a car accident in Midland? If you were hurt, missed work or the other driver's insurer is disputing fault, a lawyer usually pays for themselves. The Doan Law Firm offers free consultations at its West Illinois Avenue office, so you can find out whether your Midland crash needs legal help before you commit to anything. For a small bumper scrape with no injuries, you may not need one at all, and the team will tell you so. What percentage do accident attorneys usually take? Most car accident lawyers work on contingency, meaning the fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Doan Law Firm handles Midland car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in writing in your fee agreement before any work begins. How much of a $25,000 settlement will I actually receive? Your share depends on the agreed contingency fee, any case expenses and what is owed to medical providers or health insurers who paid for your treatment. A good lawyer will often negotiate those medical balances down, which can put more money in your pocket. Call (432) 653-0000 and the Midland team can walk you through how the numbers would work in your situation. How long do you have to call a lawyer after a car accident in Texas? Texas gives you two years from the crash to file most injury lawsuits, but waiting that long is risky. Camera footage from businesses along Loop 250 or Wadley Avenue can be erased within days, and witness memories fade fast. The Doan Law Firm answers its Midland line 24 hours a day, so it makes sense to call once your immediate medical needs are handled. Do insurance companies want you to get a lawyer? Generally not. Adjusters often push for quick settlements before you speak to anyone, because an unrepresented claim usually costs them less. Once The Doan Law Firm is involved, insurers deal with the firm directly instead of calling you. Founder Jimmy Doan was named to the Top 25 Motor Vehicle Trial Lawyers in 2026, and insurers know which firms are prepared to go to court. What should you not tell your insurance company after a crash? Avoid apologizing, guessing about speed or distances, or saying you feel fine before a doctor has checked you. Anything you say in a recorded statement can be used to argue you share the blame, which matters under Texas rules that cut your recovery by your percentage of fault. The Doan Law Firm can handle those calls for you from the start. What is the biggest mistake people make with a car accident claim? Delaying medical treatment is one of the most costly. Gaps between the crash and your first doctor visit give insurers room to argue your injuries came from something else. Whether you go to Midland Memorial Hospital or an urgent care clinic, get checked quickly. Midland clients of The Doan Law Firm say the team helped them arrange treatment within about a week. How much can you get for pain and suffering in Texas? There is no fixed formula or cap in ordinary Texas car accident cases. The amount depends on how serious your injuries are, how long recovery takes and how the crash changed your daily life. The Doan Law Firm documents both economic losses and non-economic harm, such as pain, mental anguish and physical impairment, before negotiating with insurers. What is the hardest injury to prove after a car accident? Injuries that don't show up on an X-ray, like whiplash, soft tissue damage, mild traumatic brain injury and post-crash anxiety, are often the hardest to prove. Consistent treatment records, doctor notes and a daily pain journal help. The Midland team investigates beyond the police report to build evidence that insurers can't easily dismiss. Can I get compensation for anxiety after a car accident? Yes, Texas law allows recovery for mental anguish when it is tied to the crash and properly documented. Fear of driving, trouble sleeping and panic attacks after a wreck on I-20 or SH 191 are real harms. The Doan Law Firm can connect clients with trusted medical professionals so these effects are recorded and valued fairly. How likely is it to get sued after a car accident in Midland? Most crash claims settle through insurance without anyone being personally sued, especially when the at-fault driver carries at least the Texas minimum of 30/60/25 coverage. Lawsuits become more likely when injuries are serious and exceed the policy limits. If you have received a demand letter or lawsuit, call The Doan Law Firm at (432) 653-0000 to talk through your options. When should you contact a Midland car accident lawyer? Ideally before you speak with the other driver's insurance adjuster or sign anything. Early contact lets the firm preserve evidence, request the Texas CR-3 crash report and handle insurer calls from day one. The Doan Law Firm's office at 4500 W Illinois Ave #203 is open around the clock, and the first consultation is always free.
