Car Accident Lawyer Near the South Texas Medical Center Maybe you're reading this from a bed at University Hospital or Methodist Hospital. Maybe it's your husband, your mom or your teenager in that bed, and you're in the waiting room trying to make sense of what just happened. The South Texas Medical Center, spread along Medical Drive between Fredericksburg Road, Babcock Road and Wurzbach Road, is where a lot of San Antonio crash victims end up in the hours after a wreck. Right now your only job is getting better. The legal side can wait a day, but it shouldn't wait too long. The Medical Center is also a tough place to drive. Shift changes, ambulances, delivery trucks and people circling for a parking garage all share the same lanes. Fredericksburg Road and Wurzbach Road is one of the intersections The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC names as dangerous in its own crash guides, and Huebner Road at I-10 is only a few minutes away. Failure to yield, red San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer light running and texting behind the wheel cause many of the collisions around here. Once police arrive, usually San Antonio Police Department officers, ask for the report Get more information number. That report, the Texas Peace Officer's Crash Report or CR-3, becomes one of the key pieces of your claim. Treatment is where a lot of claims are won or lost. Insurance companies look for gaps in care and use them to argue you weren't really hurt. Clients of the Aguirre firm say the team talked directly with their surgeons and doctors to plan treatment, and checked in after therapy sessions to see how recovery was going. That matters because your damages can include medical bills now and in the future, lost wages, lost earning capacity, pain and suffering, and physical impairment. If you have PIP coverage, it may help with early bills. Texas insurers must include at least $2,500 in PIP unless you rejected it in writing.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC | 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 | (210) 922-0808

Alex Aguirre, the firm's founder, spent the start of his career as an insurance defense attorney before switching sides. He's a San Antonio native with more than 20 years in personal injury law, and he holds an Avvo rating of 10.0 "Superb." His team works on contingency, so there's no fee unless they win, and the first consultation is free. If you can't leave the hospital or your home, online appointments are available. Spanish-speaking staff can help your family too. When you or someone you love is hurt near the Medical Center, a car accident lawyer in San Antonio who knows these streets can take the insurance calls off your plate. Call (210) 922-0808 any time, day or night. The office sits at Napier Park, just off Loop 1604, a short drive north of Medical Drive.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.