Crashes at Loop 1604 and US 281 in North San Antonio It's a little after five on a weekday, and you're easing toward the interchange at Loop 1604 and US 281 with everyone else who works in the city and lives up north. Someone checks a text. Someone else changes lanes without looking. In a second, your evening turns into a tow truck, a police officer and a sore neck that gets worse by the hour. For a lot of North San Antonio families, that's exactly how a crash happens. The Aguirre Law Firm lists Loop 1604 and US 281 among the dangerous spots in San Antonio, and it's easy to see why. Traffic pours in from Stone Oak, Hill Country Village and Hollywood Park, mixes with drivers heading east and west on the loop, and the pace can swing from highway speed to a crawl with little warning. The causes look like the ones seen across Bexar County: following too closely, failure to yield, speeding and distracted driving. The firm cites 2024 TxDOT data showing 39,805 crashes in San Antonio that year, with 170 deaths and 686 people suspected of serious injuries. Busy junctions like this one carry their share. If you were hurt here, the first hours matter. Call 911 so SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office responds and a Texas Peace Officer's Crash Report, the CR-3, gets written. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene if you can. Get names and numbers from witnesses. See a doctor quickly, even if you feel mostly fine. Then think twice auto accident attorney San Antonio before giving a recorded statement to the other driver's insurance company. The adjuster works for the insurer, not for you, and Alex Aguirre knows that side well. He started his career defending insurance companies and corporations against injury claims before switching sides to represent injured people.

Working with a San Antonio car accident lawyer who knows this part of town has practical benefits. The firm's office sits on Napier Park, also along Loop 1604 in the Rogers Ranch area, so the roads in your crash report aren't just names on a map. Texas gives you two years to file most injury claims. Texas also uses modified comparative fault, which means that if an insurer tries to pin part of the blame on you, your recovery shrinks, and at 51 percent it's gone. Pushing back early on fault arguments can make a real difference in how your claim is valued. Call (210) 922-0808 any time, day or night, for a free consultation. There's no fee unless the firm wins your case, and Spanish-speaking staff are ready to help. Hablamos Espanol. Visit the Napier Park office just off Loop 1604, set up an online appointment, or simply pick up the phone and tell the team what happened.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-

10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.
