Statewide Trial Resources With a Local Midland Office A company running frac sand haulers or water trucks through the Permian Basin usually has an insurer with lawyers on call, often before the wreckage is even cleared from Interstate 20. That's the reality of a serious crash with a commercial vehicle in Midland County. The person who got hit is dealing with a hospital stay at Midland Memorial and a totaled car. The other side is dealing with a claim they've handled many times before. Evening that out takes two things: someone close by who knows the roads, and the resources to go the distance if the case heads to trial. The Doan Law Firm has offices in 12 states and headquarters at 1 Riverway in Houston. That reach isn't just a line on a website. It means the firm has handled cases against large trucking companies and national insurers across different courts, and it can bring that experience to a crash on State Highway 158 or Rankin Highway south of town. Firm-wide reported vehicle results include a $7.75 Midland Car Accident Lawyer million settlement from a head-on collision with an 18-wheeler, $3.5 million in a commercial vehicle injury case, $2 million after a semi truck ran a red light and $1 million for a rear-end semi truck strike. The firm has also reported one of the largest workplace injury settlements in US history, over $100 million. None of that predicts what your case is worth, but it shows the firm knows how these companies fight. At the same time, a Midland crash needs local attention. The firm's Midland office on West Illinois Avenue sits in west Midland, and it also serves Odessa. The people handling your case know that Loop 250 north gets jammed at shift change, that two-lane highways out toward Stanton and Andrews invite risky passing, and that spring dust storms can drop visibility to almost nothing. That local knowledge helps when it's time to explain to an insurer, or a jury, exactly how a crash happened.

If you were hurt, missed work or the other driver's insurer is disputing fault, a lawyer usually pays for themselves. The Doan Law Firm offers free consultations at its West Illinois Avenue office, so you can find out whether your Midland crash needs legal help before you commit to anything. For a small bumper scrape with no injuries, you may not need one at all, and the team will tell you so. What percentage do accident attorneys usually take? Most car accident lawyers work on contingency, meaning the fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Doan Law Firm handles Midland car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in writing in your fee agreement before any work begins. How much of a $25,000 settlement will I actually receive? Your share depends on the agreed contingency fee, any case expenses and what is owed to medical providers or health insurers who paid for your treatment. A good lawyer will often negotiate those medical balances down, which can put more money in your pocket. Call (432) 653-0000 and the Midland team can walk you through how the numbers would work in your situation. How long do you have to call a lawyer after a car accident in Texas? Texas gives you two years from the crash to file most injury lawsuits, but waiting that long is risky. Camera footage from businesses along Loop 250 or Wadley Avenue can be erased within days, and witness memories fade fast. The Doan Law Firm answers its Midland line 24 hours a day, so it makes sense to call once your immediate medical needs are handled. Do insurance companies want you to get a lawyer? Generally not. Adjusters often push for quick settlements before you speak to anyone, because an unrepresented claim usually costs them less. Once The Doan Law Firm is involved, insurers deal with the firm directly instead of calling you. Founder Jimmy Doan was named to the Top 25 Motor Vehicle Trial Lawyers in 2026, and insurers know which firms are prepared to go to court. What should you not tell your insurance company after a crash? Avoid apologizing, guessing about speed or distances, or saying you feel fine before a doctor has checked you. Anything you say in a recorded statement can be used to argue you share the blame, which matters under Texas rules that cut your recovery by your percentage of fault. The Doan Law Firm can handle those calls for you from the start. What is the biggest mistake people make with a car accident claim? Delaying medical treatment is one of the most costly. Gaps between the crash and your first doctor visit give insurers room to argue your injuries came from something else. Whether you go to Midland Memorial Hospital or an urgent care clinic, get checked quickly. Midland clients of The Doan Law Firm say the team helped them arrange treatment within about a week. How much can you get for pain and suffering in Texas? There is no fixed formula or cap in ordinary Texas car accident cases. The amount depends on how serious your injuries are, how long recovery takes and how the crash changed your daily life. The Doan Law Firm documents both economic losses and non-economic harm, such as pain, mental anguish and physical impairment, before negotiating with insurers. What is the hardest injury to prove after a car accident? Injuries that don't show up on an X-ray, like whiplash, soft tissue damage, mild traumatic brain injury and post-crash anxiety, are often the hardest to prove. Consistent treatment records, doctor notes and a daily pain journal help. The Midland team investigates beyond the police report to build evidence that insurers can't easily dismiss. Can I get compensation for anxiety after a car accident? Yes, Texas law allows recovery for mental anguish when it is tied to the crash and properly documented. Fear of driving, trouble sleeping and panic attacks after a wreck on I-20 or SH 191 are real harms. The Doan Law Firm can connect clients with trusted medical professionals so these effects are recorded and valued fairly. How likely is it to get sued after a car accident in Midland? Most crash claims settle through insurance without anyone being personally sued, especially when the at-fault driver carries at least the Texas minimum of 30/60/25 coverage. Lawsuits become more likely when injuries are serious and exceed the policy limits. If you have received a demand letter or lawsuit, call The Doan Law Firm at (432) 653-0000 to talk through your options. When should you contact a Midland car accident lawyer? Ideally before you speak with the other driver's insurance adjuster or sign anything. Early contact lets the firm preserve evidence, request the Texas CR-3 crash report and handle insurer calls from day one. The Doan Law Firm's office at 4500 W Illinois Ave #203 is open around the clock, and the first consultation is always free.
