Milton's gated and equestrian communities often have covenants that protect screening and specimen trees more strictly than the city does. A removal that satisfies the city can still breach a covenant, and the penalty arrives retrospectively. Covenant notes at Click here for info %LINK%.