What is a CS: GO Case Battle?

At its core, a case battle is a multiplayer variation of basic case opening. Instead of opening a case alone in the privacy of your inventory, players get in a lobby where 2 to four participants purchase into a shared pool of cases.

As soon as the battle begins, every participant opens the precise same cases all at once. The products are exposed round by round. At the end of the battle, the total financial value of all the skins dropped for each player is computed. The gamer with the highest cumulative skin value wins the whole contents of the pool.

Secret Variations of Case Battles

- 1v1 Battles: The classic duel. Winner takes all.
- 1v1v1v1 (Free-for-All): Four gamers enter, however only one wins the loot.
- Group Battles (2v2 or 3v3): Players pool their winnings with colleagues, and the group with the highest combined worth wins.
- Terminal/Crazy Mode: Unique game modes where the rules are flipped-- for instance, the gamer with the lowest overall value wins the pot.
