FAQ About Dumpster Rental

What size dumpster do I need for a garage cleanout?

For a garage cleanout, a 10 to 15 cubic yard dumpster is typically sufficient. It provides enough space for large items like old furniture, bicycles, and debris without being overly large. Consider your specific items and the volume they will occupy to determine the best size.

How much does dumpster rental cost in Denver?

In Denver, dumpster rental costs typically range from $300 to $600, depending on the size, rental duration, and type of waste. Additional fees may apply for exceeding weight limits or specific disposal requirements, so it's important to ask for a detailed quote.

What can you put in a dumpster?

You can generally put household debris, construction materials, yard waste, and furniture in a dumpster. However, hazardous materials like batteries, chemicals, and electronics are not allowed. Always check with your rental company for a complete list of prohibited items.

How long can I keep a rented dumpster?

Most dumpster rental companies in Denver allow you to keep a rented dumpster for about 7 to 14 days. However, this can vary based on your agreement. If you need more time, discuss options with your provider to avoid late fees.

Do I need a permit for a dumpster in Denver?

Yes, if you plan to place the dumpster on a public street or sidewalk, a permit is usually required in Denver. Check with the local authorities for specific regulations and requirements to ensure compliance before renting a dumpster.

The Local Advantage

Choosing a local provider like Ranger Dumpster Rental offers you several benefits that larger, residential Denver dumpsters out-of-state companies can't match. We know Denver and the surrounding areas well, which allows us to navigate any specific ordinances that might apply to your project. Additionally, our commitment to the local community means we prioritize eco-friendly practices. When you rent a dumpster from us, you can feel good knowing that we are dedicated to responsible disposal and recycling, helping to keep the Mile High City beautiful for generations to come.
