If the primary wheel lands on the exact matching sector, the payout for that number or the multiplier for that bonus round is boosted appropriately. This is where enormous payouts can begin to form before players even reach a bonus offer round.

The Four Extravagant Bonus Rounds

The real body and soul of Crazy Time are its four reward rounds. These mini-games transport players away from the main wheel and into immersive, computer-generated reward environments.

1. Coin Flip

The simplest of the four reward rounds, Coin Flip uses a fast and simple mechanic.

- How it works: A coin with a red side and a blue side is put in a mechanical flipper. Each side is appointed a random multiplier before the flip.
- The Outcome: Whichever color faces up when the coin lands determines the multiplier used to the gamer's stake.

2. Cash Hunt

Money Hunt is an interactive shooting gallery style video game where players should make a split-second choice.

- The Outcome: Players are given a short countdown to objective and fire an on-screen cannon at a symbol of their choice. When the timer ends, all symbols reveal their hidden multipliers, and the gamer wins whatever value lagged their picked target.

3. Pachinko

Influenced by the traditional Japanese arcade game, the Pachinko bonus offer round is everything about gravity and thriller.

- How it works: The presenter climbs up to a platform and drops a puck down a big board filled with physical pegs. At the bottom of the board are different multiplier values, along with a "DOUBLE" zone.
- The Outcome: The puck bounces down the board and lands in among the multiplier slots. If it lands on "DOUBLE," all multipliers at the bottom of the board double in worth, and the presenter drops the puck a second time. This can duplicate till the optimum multiplier limit is reached.

4. Crazy Time

- The Outcome: The speaker presses a huge red button to spin the wheel. Whichever sector aligns with the player's selected flipper determines their prize. If the wheel lands on "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE," all multipliers on the wheel are doubled or tripled, and the wheel spins once again. This process can repeat, potentially leading to the game's optimum marketed payment of 20,000 x the bet.

Strategies and Approach

While Crazy Time is basically a game of chance governed by random number generators (RNG) and physical physics, gamers often employ different tactical techniques to handle their bankroll and maximize their home entertainment time.

- The Low-Volatility Approach (The Safety Net):
    - Focusing greatly on numbers 1 and 2, that make up a significant part of the wheel. This strategy yields frequent, smaller sized wins that help sustain the gamer's balance for a longer duration.
- The Bonus Hunter Approach:
    - Wagering solely or mainly on the 4 benefit rounds (Coin Flip, Cash Hunt, Pachinko, and Crazy Time). Since these segments appear less frequently on the wheel (only 9 sections overall), this method involves longer dry spells in exchange for access to the video game's main function destinations.
