Step-by-Step Guide to Ordering a Belgian Driver's License

The process of purchasing and gathering a chauffeur's license is managed locally through the municipality (Gemeente in Flanders, Commune in Wallonia, or the local municipal workplaces in Brussels).

Step 1: Meet the Prerequisites

To buy a brand-new standard (Category B) motorist's license, the candidate should:

- Be at least 18 years of age.
- Be formally signed up in a Belgian municipality with a valid home permit (National Register or foreigner register).

- Have actually passed both the theoretical test (Computer-based test) and the useful driving examination via an approved driving center.
- Hold a legitimate pass certificate released by the examination center (valid for an optimum of 3 years from the problem date).

Action 2: Visit the Local Municipal Office (Gemeente/ Commune)

As soon as the useful examination is effectively passed, the candidate must check out the population or civil computer registry department of their regional city center. It is advisable to check online whether an België Rijbewijs Te Koop appointment is needed, as lots of communes run strictly on a booked-schedule basis.

Step 3: Submit Required Documentation

Candidates need to bring particular documents to the municipal counter to process the order:

- Identity Document: Valid Belgian identity card (eID) or passport.
- Test Certificate: The initial useful examination pass certificate provided by the driving test center.
- Passport Photo: A recent, color passport-style picture meeting stringent ICAO requirements (white background, neutral expression), unless the commune can reuse the image from the electronic ID card.
- Previous License (if appropriate): Any expired, harmed, or foreign license being replaced or exchanged.
- Payment: Fees differ slightly depending on the municipality, generally varying in between EUR25 and EUR35.

Step 4: Pay and Place the Order

The community agent will validate the paperwork, sign up the demand in the main chauffeur database (DIV - Dienst voor Inschrijvingen van Voertuigen), and collect the administrative cost. Payment can generally be made by means of debit card or money. When processed, the order is officially positioned.

Step 5: Collection

Production of the credit-card-style license typically takes between 3 to 7 working days.

- Some communes send an SMS or email notice when the card is ready.
- Applicants need to go back to the city center (frequently utilizing an express ticket line or the original appointment desk) to pick up the physical card.
- Upon collection, the candidate signs the new license, and it ends up being immediately legitimate for use.

Exchanging a Foreign Driver's License in Belgium

For expatriates getting here from outside the European Union, the guidelines for acquiring a Belgian license can be more complicated.

- EU/EEA License Holders: Citizens holding a license issued by an EU or EEA member state can normally drive in Belgium up until their license expires. However, they have the choice to voluntarily register or exchange it for a Belgian license at their regional commune.
- Non-EU License Holders: Citizens from non-EU nations (third-country nationals) normally have a restricted window-- usually 185 days from developing official residency in Belgium-- to exchange their foreign license for a Belgian one, provided Belgium has a mutual exchange arrangement with their home nation.

Requirements for License Exchange:

- Official translation of the foreign license (if not in Dutch, French, German, or English, depending on the region).
- Evidence of residency and legal stay in Belgium.
