FAQ About Dumpster Rental

How long can you keep a rented dumpster?

Most dumpster rental companies in Philadelphia allow you to keep a rented dumpster for 7 to 14 days, but this can vary based on the provider and your specific needs. It's advisable to check the rental agreement for any additional fees for extended use.

What items are prohibited in a dumpster rental?

Common prohibited items in dumpster rentals include hazardous materials like batteries, chemicals, paint, and electronics. Dumpsters typically cannot hold refrigerators or any items that can be recycled. Always check with your rental provider for specific restrictions.

Do you need a permit for dumpster rental in Philadelphia?

In Philadelphia, a permit is usually required for dumpster rentals placed on public streets, sidewalks, or other city property. It’s best to check with the Philadelphia Streets Department for specific regulations and to obtain any necessary permits before renting.

How do I choose the right dumpster size for my project?

Choosing the right dumpster size depends on the scope of your project. For small cleanouts, a 10 or 15-yard dumpster may suffice, while larger renovations might require a 20 or 30-yard option. It's helpful to consult with rental companies for recommendations based on your estimated waste volume.

Choosing the Right Size for Your Project

One of the most crucial aspects of finding a dumpster rental in Philadelphia is selecting the appropriate size. Dumpsters generally come in various sizes, ranging from small 10-yard containers to larger 40-yard options. A small dumpster is ideal for smaller projects such as garage cleanouts or landscaping jobs, while a medium-sized dumpster works well for larger home renovations. For extensive construction sites, a construction dumpster or a 40-yard dumpster is often needed. Blue Collar Dumpster Rental can assist you in determining the best size for your specific needs.
