Plinko made its iconic debut in 1983 on the famous American television game program, The Price Is Right. Candidates went up to a big vertical board filled with a maze of pegs and dropped a flat circular disc-- known as a "chip"-- from the top. As the chip fell, it bounced unpredictably off the pegs before lastly landing in one of a number of financial slots at the bottom.

The sheer excitement of seeing the chip bounce hugely from side to side, developing a cascade of clicking sounds, made it an instant fan favorite.

Fast forward to the modern-day era, and online casino software application suppliers realized that this mechanic was custom-made for digital gambling. By streamlining the physics, allowing personalized danger levels, and incorporating instant-win mechanics, designers effectively transitioned Plinko from tv screens to laptops and smartphones worldwide.
